Woordeboek afrikaans-engels Matthys Stefanus Benjamin Kritzinger, Hendrik Abraham Steyn, Pieter Cornelis Schoonees, Ulrich Jerome Cronjé, 1928

Variation in the Grammar of Black South African English Verena Minow, 2010 Black South African English the variety of English used by mother tongue speakers of South Africa's indigenous languages has received considerable attention during the last two decades However so far most of the accounts of this variety have been only qualitative in nature This book reports on one of the first studies offering extensive quantitative analyses of four typical features of Black South African English grammar omission of past tense marking extended use of the progressive aspect article omission and use of left dislocation Drawing on a corpus of spoken data the study's focus lies on the investigation of the stability of the selected features and hence aims to ascertain which of these are characteristic of Black South African English as a whole Speakers exhibiting differing levels of competence in English are compared It is shown that the analysed features are used by speakers of Black South African English regardless of their proficiency level but at the same time there are considerable differences concerning the frequency of occurrence of these features

Constructs of Identity and Difference in South African Literature Johan Van Wyk, 1995

Cricket and Society in South Africa, 1910-1971 Bruce Murray, Richard Parry, Jonty Winch, 2018-09-01 This book explores how cricket in South Africa was shaped by society and society by cricket It demonstrates the centrality of cricket in the evolving relationship between culture sport and politics starting with South Africa as the beating heart of the imperial project and ending with the country as an international pariah The contributors explore the tensions between fragmentation and unity on and off the pitch in the context of the racist ideology of empire its arrested development and the reliance of South Africa on a racially based exploitative labour system This edited collection uncovers the hidden history of cricket society and empire in defining a multiplicity of South African identities and recognises the achievements of forgotten players and their impact

Sport Past and Present in South Africa Scarlett Cornelissen, Albert Grundlingh, 2013-09-13 This book provides an interpretation of sport in contemporary South Africa through an historical account of the evolution and social ramifications of sport in the twentieth century It comprises chapters which trace the growth of sports such as football cricket surfing boxing and rugby and considers their relationship to aspects of racial identity masculinity femininity political and social development in the country The book also draws out the wider geo political significance of South African sport placing it in the context of the development of sport both elsewhere on the African continent and internationally The history of sport has seen significant international growth over the past few decades For the most part however the history of sport in Africa has remained largely untraced By detailing the way in which sport s development in South Africa overlapped with major socio political processes on the wider African continent this volume seeks to narrow the gap This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport The Farmer's Weekly ,1927 Bishops 150 John Gardener,1997

Postcolonial Polysystems Haidee Kruger,2012 Postcolonial Polysystems The Production and Reception of Translated Children s Literature in South Africa is an original and provocative contribution to the field of children s literature research and translation studies It draws on a variety of methodologies to provide a perspective both product and process oriented on the ways in which translation contributes to the production of children s literature in South Africa with a special interest in language and power as well as post and neocolonial hybridity The book explores the forces that affect the use of translation in producing children s literature in various languages in South Africa and shows how some of these forces precipitate in the selection production and reception of translated children s books in Afrikaans and English It breaks new ground in its interrogation of aspects of translation theory within the multilingual and postcolonial context of South Africa as well as in its innovative experimental investigation of the reception of domesticating and foreignising strategies in translated picture books The book has won the 2013 EST Young Scholar Prize Dictionary of African Filmmakers Roy Armes,2008-07-11 Chiefly short biographies and filmographies *Debates of the ...
