A. WHAT IS THIS LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Plaintiffs Jesse Grady and Desiree Duran filed this lawsuit against People 2.0 Global, LLC and People 2.0 North America, LLC (referred to as the "Defendants"), claiming that the wage statements that Defendants furnished to their California employees do not show the inclusive pay period dates and the name and address of the employer as required by California Labor Code section 226(a). Although Defendants deny any liability or wrongdoing of any kind and believe their practices were legally sufficient, they have entered into this class action settlement, in which you are included as a class action settlement member. Moreover, on November 8, 2017 and January 31, 2018, Defendants revised the form of their wage statements to strictly comply with Labor Code section 226(a). The Court has made no determination about the strengths and weaknesses of the claims or contentions of either Plaintiffs or Defendants.

According to Defendants' records, you are a member of the Class as defined in the accompanying Class Notice, and were issued one or more wage statements from December 4, 2016 through January 31, 2018.

B. INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING A CLAIM.

Class Action Dilemmas Deborah R. Hensler, Bonnie Dombey-Moore, Elizabeth Giddens, Jennifer Gross, Erik Moller, 2000-08-02 Class action lawsuits allowing one or a few plaintiffs to represent many who seek redress have long been controversial The current controversy centered on lawsuits for money damages is characterized by sharp disagreement among stakeholders about the kinds of suits being filed whether plaintiffs claims are meritorious and whether resolutions to class actions are fair or socially desirable Ultimately these concerns lead many to wonder Are class actions worth their costs to society and to business Do they do more harm than good To describe the landscape of current damage class action litigation elucidate problems and identify solutions the RAND Institute for Civil Justice conducted a study using qualitative and quantitative research methods The researchers concluded that the controversy over damage class actions has proven intractable because it implicates deeply held but sharply contested ideological views among stakeholders Nevertheless many of the political antagonists agree that class action practices merit improvement The authors argue that both practices and outcomes could be substantially improved if more judges would supervise class action litigation more actively and scrutinize proposed settlements and fee awards more carefully Educating and empowering judges to take more responsibility for case outcomes and ensuring that they have the resources to do so can help the civil justice system achieve a better balance between the public goals of class actions and the private interests that drive them
