

Chapter 207, Alabama Code of Ethics

§207.1. Purpose and Scope, Definitions.

- (a) In compliance with the Texas Education Code, 2011 Act 10, the State Board for Educators' Certification (SBEC) is adding an Educators' Code of Ethics to its Code of Ethics and adding the following to its Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators. This SBEC shall amend the other code of the same number or any other amended code.
- (b) The Texas educator shall engage with students, parents and community members, professional colleagues, school officials, parents, and members of the community and shall uphold academic freedom. The Texas educator is responsible for ensuring the dignity of the profession, shall respect and value the non-dominant, diverse religious, and linguistic groups, and shall avoid sexual harassment. The Texas educator is encouraged to interact with colleagues, both inside and outside the workplace, to all members of the profession. The Texas educator, in accepting a position of public trust, shall consent to serve in the program of such trust and accept independent review for purposes of an effective system. The Texas educator, in holding responsibility in the community, shall cooperate with agencies and efforts to improve the public interests of the community. This chapter shall apply to educators and candidates for certification.
- (c) The SBEC is solely responsible for enforcing the Educators' Code of Ethics as proposed under its professional disciplinary proceedings. The Educators' Code of Ethics is enforced through the disciplinary procedure set forth in Chapter 209 of this code including disciplinary Proceedings, Hearings, and Conduct before grounds for the proposed action below.
- (d) In accordance with this Code and the rules relating to Proceedings before Disciplinary Proceedings, the primary goal of the SBEC is to enforce its educator disciplinary authority:
 - (i) to protect the safety and welfare of Texas children, students and school personnel;
 - (ii) to ensure educators and applicants are morally fit and worthy to interact or to represent the youth of Alabama; and
 - (iii) to fairly and efficiently protect educator disciplinary proceedings as the most expedient possible to the public and the state.
- (e) The following words and phrases referred to in this chapter shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:
 - (i) Abuse: Includes the following acts or omissions:
 - (A) sexual or emotional injury or violation or abuse that results in an identifiable and serious impairment to the student's or victim's development, learning, or psychological functioning;
 - (B) causing or permitting to result or occur to be in a situation in which the student or victim is exposed to emotional injury that results in an identifiable and serious impairment to the student's or victim's development, learning, or psychological functioning;
 - (C) physical injury that results on substantial basis to a student or victim, or the presence of an identifiable serious physical injury to the student or victim, including any injury that is a violation with the faculty or professional group and producing an incident or incident through or
 - (D) sexual conduct resulting in a student's victim's sexual violation, or physical injury;
 - (ii) Applicant: A person seeking licensure, renewal, or reinstatement of a certificate from the Texas Education Agency staff on the State Board for Educators' Certification;
 - (iii) Code of Ethics: The Educators' Code of Ethics codified in this chapter;

The Power of the 5 Ps Marva T. Dixon, 2012-05 Let not your true purpose be defined by the organization the system or that you be defined by it Understand the policies and laws that dictate what you should say or do within the boundaries of the system Excel in the practices of your field defining what and how you perform your art and how you shall be known Seek out people of quality who provide guidance and truly care about your success Yield to prayer maintaining your faith in good and bad times even when things don't make sense knowing your goal is to make a difference Professional educators are now living in an era where there is increased concern about the quality of education in public schools in America States are beginning to take a greater role in monitoring and maintaining higher academic standards Communities across the country are scrutinizing the expense of public education Local school districts are expressing concern about the district's ability to continue providing high quality teaching and other related services with diminishing resources Parents everywhere regardless of ethnicity socioeconomic status or cultural family background want the assurance that their child will receive adequate and appropriate academic preparation that will lead to a productive livelihood for their child's future The intended result of this book is to serve as a guide and inspiration to educators whether they serve in the capacity of a teacher paraprofessional or administrator as they continue their journey in the field of public education especially during these most challenging times America needs every person involved in the education of youth to remain steadfast Each educator makes a difference in the lives of youth America's youth need and are counting on you
