Academic Writing for Geographers James A. Tyner, 2023-08-21 There are many how to books on writing for academics none of these however relate specifically to the discipline of geography In this book the author identifies the principle modes of academic writing that graduate students and early career faculty will encounter specifically focusing on those forms expected of geographers that is those modes that are reviewed by academic peers This book is readily accessible to senior undergraduate and graduate students and early career faculty who may feel intimidated by the process of writing This volume is not strictly a how to or step by step manual for writing an article or book rather through the use of real concrete examples from published and unpublished works the author demystifies the process of different types of scholarly pieces geographers have to write with the specific needs and challenges of the discipline in mind Although chapters are thematic based e.g stand alone chapters on book reviews articles and books the manuscript is structured around the concept of story telling for it is the author's contention that all writing whether a scientific study or more humanist essay is a form of story telling

Elements of Fiction Writing - Description Monica Wood, 1995 Description is most powerful when it's visible aural tactile Make your descriptions fresh and they'll move your story forward imbue your work with atmosphere create that tang of feeling that editors cry for and readers crave Monica Wood helps you squeeze the greatest flavor from the language She segments description like an orange separating its slices to let you sample each one You'll learn about Detail and how you can use description to awaken the reader's senses of touch taste hearing smell and sight Plot from advancing story using only relevant description and how to edit out sluggish reader stopping writing Style and the use of description to create a mood that matches your story's content Point of view how selecting omniscient first person or third person limited narrative influences the descriptive freedom you have Creating original word depictions of people animals places weather and movement Wood teaches by example developing stories with characters in various situations to show you how you can apply description techniques You ll also see samples of work by such noted writers as Mark Helprin Anne Tyler and Raymond Carver And you ll find the dos and don ts lists and descriptive alternatives to common verbs and nouns and tips for editing your work
