

Caste and Outcast

A detailed golden statue of Lord Ganesha, the elephant-headed deity, is the central focus. He is depicted with four arms: the upper right hand holds a conch shell, the upper left hand holds a mace, the lower right hand is in the Varada mudra (boon-giving gesture), and the lower left hand holds a bowl of sweets. He is adorned with a large, ornate crown, multiple necklaces, and armlets. The statue is set against a dark, textured background with intricate golden carvings, including a decorative archway above and a base below.
