Readings in Second Language Pedagogy and Second Language Acquisition Asako Yoshitomi, Tae Umino, Masashi Negishi, 2006-01-01 The selected contributions of this volume focuses on various issues related to second language pedagogy and second language acquisition in the Japanese context Part I covers such topics as discourse pragmatics and cross cultural pragmatics in language teaching the instruction of conversation through training in story telling skills task activities as a means for grammarization in grammar teaching the development of a computerized speaking test and a proficiency scale for EFL learners and the social aspects of the language teacher expertise Part II deals with the cognitive transformation involved in the acquisition of syntactic structures the application of ZPD to adult learners not only in terms of interpersonal interaction but also through interfacing with other media examination of learners narrative data to analyze linguistic and gestural reference and to investigate learners use of phrasal verbs learner s strategy use in self instruction that utilizes audiovisual materials and network computer technology in computer assisted language learning Visual Reasoning in Science, Engineering, and the Humanities Daria Bylieva, Dong Luo, Alfred Nordmann, 2026-01-14 This book investigate visualization practices conceptually historically and strategically showing what visual thinking can achieve especially in professional training and educational contexts For a long time science and education were dominated by the word What mattered were written texts mathematical formulae and verbalizations And yet similes metaphors illustrations diagrams and geometric demonstrations were always involved Engineering and design thinking established the virtues of visual thinking A blue print or schematic representation can be investigated for dependencies and cause effect relations In recent decades a better understanding of visual thinking opened the door for tools and techniques especially in educational contexts

Examining Listening Ardeshir Geranpayeh, Lynda B. Taylor, 2013-03-27 This volume examines the nature of second language listening proficiency and how it can be assessed The book highlights the need for test developers to provide a clear explication of the ability constructs which underpin the tests they offer in the public domain This is increasingly necessary if claims about the validity of test score interpretation and use are to be supported both logically and with empirical evidence It operationalises a comprehensive test validation framework which adopts a socio cognitive perspective The framework embraces six core components examining and then analysing Cambridge ESOL listening tasks from the following perspectives Test Taker Cognitive Validity Context Validity Scoring Validity Criterion related Validity and Consequential Validity Language Functions Revisited Anthony Green, 2012-05-03 Introduction to the theoretical and empirical bases for the definition of language learning level in functional Can Do terms for the English Profile Programme A Contrastive Analysis of German and English Morphosyntactic Features Jenny Streb, 2018-07-24 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 2.0 University of Mannheim language English abstract In this thesis the accuracy of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR is explored with the help of a study investigating the German L2 morphosyntactic competence of 15 English L1 speakers in two settings a language assessment test setting as well as in online processing Within this thesis L2 morphosyntactic competence was limited to the two investigated areas of subject verb agreement SVA as well as the distinctive verb placement in German main and subordinate clauses Previous research has identified these two linguistic areas as being especially prone to error in adult L2 acquisition of German Since all test takers varied in their German language proficiency levels encompassing a range from A2 to B2 according to the CEFR it was hypothesised that L2 learners of a B2 language proficiency level generally outperform L2 learners of a lower language proficiency level B1 and A2 in all investigated areas However this hypothesis could not be affirmed since the study did not find significant differences in the morphosyntactic competence of English German L2 learners between test takers of distinctive CEF language proficiency levels
