

Directions: Identify four problems/weaknesses in the Articles of Confederation in the left-hand column. Then, in the box next to it, write how that problem was addressed/fixd in the Constitution we use today. An example has been done for you.

Problem in the Articles of Confederation...	How it was fixed in the new Constitution....
Example: There was no regulation of trade between states.	Example: Congress was granted the power to regulate commerce (trade between the states).
It was a unicameral government (Congress was the only body created)	Now, we have a bicameral legislature (the House of Representatives and the Senate)
There was no judicial or executive branch (only legislative)	Now, we have three branches of government: legislative, executive, and judicial
Congress did not have the power to tax; they had to ask the states for money	Congress was given the power to tax and regulate commerce.
Any changes, or amendments, to the Articles required the approval of all thirteen states, and that proved to be an impossible task.	We can amend the Constitution if it needs any changes (the amendments)
