

QUESTION 1: THE BIRTH OF THE NATION

QUESTION 1: THE BIRTH OF THE NATION

1. The first step in the process of nation-building was the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776. This document declared the thirteen colonies to be free and independent states, no longer under British rule. The signing took place in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at the Independence Hall.

QUESTION 2: THE CONSTITUTION

2. The second step was the drafting and signing of the U.S. Constitution in 1787. This document established the framework for the federal government and the relationship between the states and the federal government.

3. The third step was the ratification of the Constitution by the states. This process was completed in 1788, when the Constitution was signed by the states and became the supreme law of the land. The signing took place in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at the Independence Hall.

4. The fourth step was the establishment of the federal government. This process was completed in 1789, when the first Congress met in New York City. The first President, George Washington, was inaugurated in 1789.

5. The fifth step was the expansion of the territory. This process was completed in 1803, when the Louisiana Purchase was made. This acquisition doubled the size of the United States and opened up new lands for settlement.

6. The sixth step was the westward expansion. This process was completed in 1845, when Texas was annexed. This acquisition added another large territory to the United States and opened up new lands for settlement.

7. The seventh step was the Civil War. This conflict, which lasted from 1861 to 1865, was fought between the Union and the Confederacy. The Union emerged victorious, and the Confederacy was dissolved.
