The Routledge Companion to Adaptation Dennis Cutchins, Katja Krebs, Eckart Voigts, 2018-04-17 The Routledge Companion to Adaptation offers a broad range of scholarship from this growing interdisciplinary field With a basis in source oriented studies such as novel to stage and stage to film adaptations this volume also seeks to highlight the new and innovative aspects of adaptation studies ranging from theatre and dance to radio television and new media It is divided into five sections Mapping which presents a variety of perspectives on the scope and development of adaptation studies Historiography which investigates the ways in which adaptation engages with and disrupts history Identity which considers texts and practices in adaptation as sites of multiple and fluid identity formations Reception which examines the role played by an audience considering the unpredictable relationships between adaptations and those who experience them Technology which focuses on the effects of ongoing technological advances and shifts on specific adaptations and on the wider field of adaptation An emphasis on adaptation as practice establishes methods of investigation that move beyond a purely comparative case study model The Routledge Companion to Adaptation celebrates the complexity and diversity of adaptation studies mapping the field across genres and disciplines

Nature Swapped and Nature Lost Elia Apostolopoulou, 2020-06-23 This book unravels the profound implications of biodiversity offsetting for nature society relationships and its links to environmental and social inequality Drawing on people s resistance against its implementation in several urban and rural places across England it explores how the production of equivalent natures the core promise of offsetting reframes socionatures both discursively and materially transforming places and livelihoods The book draws on theories and concepts from human geography political ecology and Marxist political economy and aims to shift the trajectory of the current literature on the interplay between offsetting urbanization and the neoliberal reconstruction of conservation and planning policies in the era following the 2008 financial crash By shedding light on offsetting s contested geographies it offers a fundamental retheorization of offsetting capable of demonstrating how offsetting and more broadly revanchist neoliberal policies are increasingly used to support capitalist urban growth producing socially environmentally and geographically uneven outcomes Nature Swapped and Nature Lost brings forward an understanding of environmental politics as class politics and sees environmental justice as inextricably linked to social justice It effectively challenges the dystopia of offsetting s ahistorical and asocial non places and proposes a radically different pathway for gaining social control over the production of nature by linking struggles for the right to the city with struggles for the right to nature for all The Palgrave Handbook of Screenwriting Studies Rosamund Davies,Paolo Russo,Claus Tieber,2023-07-27 This book provides an overview of the growing field of screenwriting research and is essential reading for both those new to the field and established screenwriting scholars It covers topics and concepts central to the study of screenwriting and the screenplay in relation to film television web series animation games and other interactive media and includes a range of approaches from theoretical perspectives to in depth case studies 44 scholars from around the globe demonstrate the range and depths of this new and expanding area of study As the chapters of this Handbook demonstrate shifting the focus from the finished film to the process of screenwriting and the text of the screenplay facilitates valuable new insights This Handbook is the first of its kind an indispensable compendium for both academics and practitioners The Business of Film Stephen Greenwald,Paula Landry,2022-10-27 This updated third edition introduces readers to the business of film at every stage of the filmmaking lifecycle from planning and production to financing marketing and distribution Celebrated authors Stephen R Greenwald and Paula Landry offer a practical hands on guide to the business aspects of this evolving industry exploring streaming development financing trends regional global online distribution shifting business models exhibition multi platform delivery marketing VR AR virtual production accounting and more The book is illustrated throughout with sample financing scenarios and charts graphics and includes detailed case studies from projects of different budgets and markets This new and expanded edition has been updated to reflect the new challenges facing the industry due to Covid 19 and how to navigate the new landscape of film financing and distribution Other updates include coverage of new indie films and distributors virtual production the recent impact of global markets including the biggest streamers like Netflix Apple and Amazon are how they are shaping the future of the business This is essential reading for students looking for foundational knowledge of the film industry and guidance on how to successfully adapt to constant changes in the entertainment business Extensive online support material accompanies the book including downloadable forms and templates PowerPoint slides quizzes and test banks and other additional resources Voice & Vision Mick Hurbis-Cherrier,2018-07-03 Develop your creative voice
