Secret Protocol:

The Secret Protocol Antonella Salomoni, 2026-01-06 In 1939 the Soviet Union and Germany agreed to a nonaggression treaty named for its signatories foreign ministers Vyacheslav Molotov and Joachim von Ribbentrop Kept hidden from the public was an addendum to the Molotov Ribbentrop Pact a secret protocol whose existence was denied by the Soviet Union until 1992 It defined new borders for German and Soviet spheres of influence effectively preparing for the partition of Poland the Baltic states and Bessarabia Shortly after signing on August 23 1939 both the USSR and Nazi Germany invaded Poland In this volume Antonella Salomoni scrutinizes this consequential document and its afterlives focusing predominantly on the discourse that surrounded it From the moment of the secret protocol s inception and the near instantaneous rumors of its existence it generated friction and competing narratives The document became public during the Nuremberg trials but the USSR declared it a fabrication evidencing the West s willingness to falsify history It continues to be relevant to the reconfiguration of history currently advanced by Vladimir Putin By centering the rumors accusations and propaganda the pact precipitated Salomoni illuminates how political actors can use and abuse history how they create and disseminate truths and falsehoods and how they can blur the boundary between facts and fictions even in the glaring face of black and white documentation
