Innovative Risk Leadership in Aviation Triant Flouris, Ayşe Küçük Yılmaz, Konstantinos Malagas, 2025-08-26 This book focuses on the perspective of risk leadership strategy in view of human resources diversity management and inclusion projects in the multicultural business environment of aviation operations. It will enable the reader to successfully develop strategies and manage their sustainability with sound risk leadership organisational behaviour and ergonomic focused approaches to achieve corporate objectives within their aviation industry context. Innovative risk leadership is the essential driver in diversity ethical and inclusion based global management strategies which are affected by digitalisation and artificial intelligence AI. This book showcases many contemporary management issues grounded in the innovative risk leadership concept and will serve as a useful resource for managers and professionals as well as researchers of enterprise management and strategy. It examines the successful integration of innovative risk leadership into business management with diversity and inclusion shaped by AI with an emphasis on aviation issues recognising that aviation enterprises operate in a hypercompetitive environment applying digital technologies to achieve smooth operations and efficient performance and that the effective management of multiculturalism is a key priority in this global industry. Such realities result in higher risk and as such aviation managers must always strive to find ways to mitigate this risk. Practices and policies that the aviation industry applies to handle these issues are shown to be adopted from other sectors as well as adapted to other sectors. Written for aviation industry managers professionals students and researchers interested in risk management the book could also be utilised as a handbook for MROs airlines airports and aerospace manufacturers.

Remotely Innovative Tom Coughlan, David Fogarty, 2025-07-23 In the near term the future will not belong to AI but it will belong to the people who understand AI and how to strategically leverage its advantages. This book gives managers a new perspective on innovation and AI allowing them to seize the future. As the pace of change has increased organizations have needed to invest in innovation initiatives to survive and thrive. Up until now these models have focused on co location which is no longer an option in some cases and may not be necessary for all leaving organizations scrambling for options. Following up on their work in Managing at a Distance Tom Coughlan and David Fogarty have developed this guide to help managers navigate the challenges of innovation in a world of hybrid and remote workers amidst the ever increasing use of AI. They tackle questions such as the difference between creativity and innovation and how proximity or lack of it impacts teams and present strategic structural and measurement solutions to maximize the role of AI in successful innovation while not minimizing the people who make up organizations. Platform agnostic this book will appeal to organizational leaders and managers who work with knowledge workers of any type as well as students and instructors in graduate business courses executive education and corporate training programs.
