Foundations of Airline Finance Bijan Vasigh,2014-11-13 In recent years the airline industry has experienced severe volatility in earnings with airlines recording periods of substantial profits that are closely followed by periods of financial distress This trend has continued into the new millennium with numerous examples of airlines across the globe entering bankruptcy protection or liquidating The text provides an introduction to both the basics of finance and the particular intricacies of airline finance where there can be significant fluctuations in both revenues and costs This new edition also includes capital budgeting management of current assets financial risk analysis fuel hedging aircraft leasing This textbook contains chapters that cover unique aspects of the aviation financial decision making process These include a rigorous and structured presentation of the buy versus lease decision that is prevalent in the industry a valuation process for aviation assets the recent trend toward privatization and the difficulty inherent in the valuation of a publicly owned or semi publicly owned asset The Foundations of Airline Finance now in its second edition is an introductory text that can be used either as a general financial text or in a specialized class that deals with aviation finance in particular

ISE Principles of Corporate Finance Richard A. Brealey, Stewart C. Myers, Franklin Allen, Alex Edmans,2022-04-25 This book describes the theory and practice of corporate finance We hardly need to explain why financial managers have to master the practical aspects of their job but we should spell out why down to earth managers need to bother with theory Managers learn from experience how to cope with routine problems But the best managers are also able to respond to change To do so you need more than time honored rules of thumb you must understand why companies and financial markets behave the way they do In other words you need a theory of finance

New Financing for Distressed Businesses in the Context of Business Restructuring Law Sanford U. Mba,2019-06-29 This book focuses on the restructuring of distressed businesses emphasizing the need for new financing during the restructuring process as well as during relaunch and examines the role of law in encouraging creditor confidence and incentivizing lending It describes two broad approaches to encouraging new finance during restructuring a prescriptive one that seeks to attract credit using expressly defined statutory incentives and a market based one that relies on the business judgment of lenders against the backdrop of transaction avoidance rules Securing new financing for a distressed business is a critical part of successful restructuring Without such financing the business may be unable to meet interim liquidity constraints or to implement its restructuring plans This book addresses related questions concerning the place of new financing as an essential component of restructuring In general terms the book explores how statutory interventions and the courts can provide support with contentious issues that arise from the provision of new financing whether through new financing agreements or through distressed debt investors who are increasingly gaining prominence as sources of new financing for distressed businesses It argues that courts play a key part in preventing or correcting the imbalances that can arise from the participation of distressed debt investors In this context it critically examines the distressed debt market in emerging markets like Nigeria and the opportunity presented by non performing loans arguing that the regulatory pattern of market entry may disincentivize distress debt investing in a market that is in dire need of financing The book offers a fresh and comparative perspective on restructuring new financing for distressed businesses by comparing various approaches primarily from the US UK and Germany and drawing lessons for frontier markets with particular reference to Nigeria It fills an important gap in international comparative scholarship and discusses a living problem with both empirical and policy aspects
