British Computer Society Code of conduct

The British Computer Society (BCS) is the British national body for IT professionals. As a professional body the BCS has a responsibility to set rules and professional standards to direct the behavior of its members in professional matters. The BCS Code of Conduct describes standards of practice relating to the various multifaceted demands found in information technology (IT). It is intended to help you a member of the BCS by providing a framework of guidance into which your particular needs can be fitted. Members are expected to exercise their own judgment to meet the requirements of the code and seek advice if in doubt.

The BCS Code of conduct

1). In regard to public Interest

    a) Regard for the public health, safety, and environment.

    b) Regard legitimate rights of third parties.

    c) Have knowledge of and comply with relevant legislation, regulations and standards

    d) No discrimination

    e) No active or passive bribery

2). Duty to the Profession

    a) Uphold the reputation of the BCS
