basis of all learning Back cover Collaborating(,) Literature(,) and Composition Frank Gaughan, Peter H. Khost, 2007 The disciplines of English and composition seem particularly prone to crisis driven proclamations our kids don't read the great works or they don't read at all or they can't write Crisis talk notwithstanding educators are left to theorize and practice ways to teach reading and writing with intelligence compassion and integrity However it often seems that theoretical formulations do not sufficiently explain their practicable applications and practicable discussions too rarely rise above the level of swapping recipes sharing assignments that work well in one context but may not in another Therefore the editors of this volume submit this collection of essays that strives to harmonize the all too often discordant qualities of theory and practice Each co-authored essay illustrates and analyzes various classroom based strategies for productive collaboration between literature and composition This collection envisions a reciprocal to composing literature literaturing composition which entails living through literature as Louise Rosenblatt has it This process regards the literary text as a medium for creative action so that one reads not to criticize so much as to imagine new compositional possibilities The eight essays in this collection are divided into four sections which span topics that include textuality and critical pedagogy argumentation and hybrid genres student engagement and popular culture and materiality and assessment Publisher's website

Conversations in American Literature Robin Dissin Aufses, Renee Shea, Lawrence Scanlon, 2020-12-30 Teachers have struggled for years to balance the competing demands of American Literature and AP English Language Now the team that brought you the bestselling Language of Composition is here to help Conversations in American Literature Language Rhetoric Culture is a new kind of American Literature anthology putting nonfiction on equal footing with the traditional fiction and poetry and emphasizing the skills of rhetoric close reading argument and synthesis To spark critical thinking the book includes TalkBack pairings and synthesis Conversations that let students explore how issues and texts from the past continue to impact the present Whether you're teaching AP English Language or gearing up for Common Core Conversations in American Literature will help you revolutionize the way American literature is taught Illinois Reading Council Journal, 2017

Digital Citizenship in Schools Mike Ribble, Gerald D. Bailey, 2007 Tackles personal interaction when using technologies and the role of digital citizenship in classrooms Education in the Arts Christine Sinclair, Neryl Jeanneret, John O'Toole, 2009 Education in the Arts Principles and Practices for Teaching covers the teaching of visual art drama dance and music in primary and early childhood education within the context of integrated creative arts education It links theory and research to teaching practice and allows teacher education students to apply what they have learned to new contexts It encourages reflection upon teaching practice through real case studies and provides direction for considering what it means to be an arts education teacher in a school rather than an art music or drama specialist The text is a valuable resource for both students and teachers with guidance on how to implement the various arts practices in a school setting

Information Communication Technologies for Enhanced Education and Learning Lawrence A. Tomei, 2009-01-01 The influence of technology on the educational system has greatly impacted the creative ways students are now learning. Educators can now enhance their instruction through cutting-edge tools and methodologies that appeal to contemporary students who are already immersed in a technology-rich environment. Information Communication Technologies for Enhanced Education and Learning: Advanced Applications and Developments represents a unique examination of technology-based design, development, and collaborative tools for the classroom. Covering advanced topics in e-pedagogy, online learning, and virtual instruction, this book contributes high-quality research for addressing technological integration in the classroom, a must-have for 21st-century academicians, students, educational researchers, and practicing teachers. Meaningful

Learning with Technology David H. Jonassen, 2008. This edition describes how various technologies can be used to engage and support different learning activities. By using these processes, teachers also encourage their students to take on more responsibility and become active participants in their own learning. Business Education (UBE) Forum

, 2002. TASKs for Democracy Josef Huber (Educator), Pascale Mompoin-Gaillard, Ildikó Lázár, 2015. This publication contains a rationale for the necessity to focus on competences for democracy in all areas of education, an explanation of what transversal attitudes, skills, and knowledge mean and why they are important for and should be taken on board by all education professionals. A list of components forms the heart of the publication, describing the core attitudes, skills, and knowledge which need to be developed by every individual in order to be able to live in and to contribute to the development and maintenance of democratic societies in their full diversity. The collection of learning and re-learning activities will help practitioners to promote the development of these components in their day-to-day educational practice. The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook for Critical Thinking

Noel Hendrickson, Kirk Amant, William Hawk, William O'Meara, Daniel Flage, 2008-02-08. Just as The Elements of Style provides a quick and authoritative reference for writers, The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook for Critical Thinking provides a quick and authoritative reference for issues regarding reasoning. The Handbook provides clear and succinct discussions of the following issues: Issues germane to clarifying sentences, ambiguity, vagueness, and propositional attitudes; General discussions of descriptions, explanations, and arguments; Criteria for evaluating observational statements and testimony; Categorical syllogisms, including issues germane to both the Boolean and Aristotelian interpretations; A complete system of propositional logic and a brief discussion of the use of truth tables; Induction, generalization, and particularization; arguments, analogies, arguments to the best explanation; Mill's Methods; counterfactual reasoning and making decisions under risk and uncertainty; A brief discussion of the principle formulas involved in calculating probabilities; An extended discussion of informal fallacies; An essay on the relationship between critical thinking and writing. Strategic Finance, 2008.
