Fadipe, 2022-06-14 This volume examines how African indigenous popular music is deployed in democracy politics and for social crusades by African artists Exploring the role of indigenous African popular music in environmental health communication and gender empowerment it subsequently focuses on how the music portrays the African future its use by African youths and how it is affected by advanced broadcast technologies and the digital media Indigenous African popular music has long been under appreciated in communication scholarship However understanding the nature and philosophies of indigenous African popular music reveals an untapped diversity which can only be unraveled by the knowledge of myriad cultural backgrounds from which its genres originate With a particular focus on scholarship from Nigeria Zimbabwe and South Africa this volume explores how during the colonial period and post independence dispensation indigenous African music genres and their artists were mainstreamed in order to tackle emerging issues to sensitise Africans about the affairs of their respective nations and to warn African leaders who have failed and are failing African citizenry about the plight of the people At the same time indigenous African popular music genres have served as a beacon to the teeming African youths to express their dreams frustrations about their environments and to represent themselves This volume explores how through the advent of new media technologies indigenous African popular musicians have been working relentlessly for indigenous production becoming champions of good governance marginalised population and repositories of indigenous cultural traditions and cosmologies African-Language Literatures Innocentia Jabulisile Mhlambi, 2012-06-01 African language writing is in crisis The conditions under which African writing developed in the past only remotely similar to those of Western models resulted in an inability of Eurocentric literary models to explore the hermeneutic world of African language poetics inherited from the oral and the modern worlds Existing modes of criticism in the study of this literary tradition are often unsuited for a nuanced understanding of the intrinsic and extrinsic aspects at play in the composition production and reading of these literatures In African Language Literatures Innocentia Jabulisile Mhlambi charts new directions in the study of African language literatures generally and isiZulu fiction in particular by proposing that African popular arts and culture models be considered as a logical solution to current debates and challenges Mhlambi shows how the popular arts and culture approach brings into relationship the oral and written forms the local and the international and elitist and popular genres and locates and places the resultant emerging eclectic culture into its socio historical context She uses this theoretical approach to explore in a wide range of cultural products what matters or what is of interest to the people irrespective of social hierarchies and predispositions It is her contention that in profound ways the African language literary tradition evinces diversity complexity and fluidity and that this should be seen as an invitation to look at systems of meaning which do not hide their connections with the facts of power and material life Reshaping Music Education: Inclusive Pedagogies and Curriculum Renewal Yende, Sakhiseni Joseph, 2025-12-17 Music education plays a crucial role in shaping cultural identity fostering creativity and promoting social cohesion However persistent inequalities and inherited colonial structures continue to limit the recognition of diverse musical traditions and ways of knowing Reimagining music education through inclusive and decolonial approaches can empower learners affirm cultural heritage and bridge divides across communities By integrating indigenous knowledge systems and diverse pedagogical perspectives music education can become a transformative force for equity representation and social renewal Reshaping Music Education Inclusive Pedagogies and Curriculum Renewal brings together examinations of how music education can become more inclusive relevant and socially responsive It positions music education not merely as an artistic discipline but also as a powerful vehicle for social justice critical inquiry and cultural affirmation Covering topics such as Afrosonic pedagogies higher education and ubuntu this book is an excellent resource for music educators curriculum developers educational policymakers researchers academicians postgraduate students and more Popular Culture in Africa Stephanie Newell, Onookome Okome, 2013-11-12 This volume marks the 25th anniversary of Karin Barber's ground breaking article Popular Arts in Africa which stimulated new debates about African popular culture and its defining categories Focusing on performances audiences social contexts and texts contributors ask how African popular cultures contribute to the formation of an episteme With chapters on theater Nollywood films blogging and music and sports discourses as well as on popular art forms urban and youth cultures and gender and sexuality the book highlights the dynamism and complexity of contemporary popular cultures in sub Saharan Africa Focusing on the streets of Africa especially city streets where different cultures and cultural personalities meet the book asks how the category of the people is identified and interpreted by African culture producers politicians religious leaders and by the people themselves The book offers a nuanced strongly historicized perspective in which African popular cultures are regarded as vehicles through which we can document ordinary people's vitality and responsiveness to political and social transformations South & Southern African Literature Eldred D. Jones, Marjorie Jones, 2002 The end of the apartheid in South Africa has meant that the literature of protest need no longer dominate creative output This title looks at the realities of independent African nations as expressed in song and literature Radio, Public Life and Citizen Deliberation in South Africa Sarah Chiumbu, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2021-05-24 This book critically analyses the important role of radio in public life in post apartheid South Africa As the most widespread and popular form of communication in the country radio occupies an essential space in the deliberation and the construction of public opinion in South Africa From just a few state controlled stations during the apartheid era there are now more than 100 radio stations reaching vast swathes of the population and providing an important space for citizens to air their views and take part in significant socio economic and political issues of the country The various contributors to this book demonstrate that whilst print and television media often serve elite interests and audiences the low cost and flexibility of radio has helped it to create a common space for national dialogue and deliberation The book also investigates the ways in which digital technologies have enhanced the consumption of radio and produced a sense of imagined community for citizens including those in marginalised communities and rural areas This book will be of interest to researchers with an interest in media politics and culture in South Africa specifically as well as those with an interest in broadcast media more generally

Conquering the Poverty of the Mind - MaZwane's Story Rita Zwane,Isabella Morris,2019-10-21 When you see a township resident driving past in their new car and they wave and you wave back it is extremely gratifying to know that they built their chakalaka business based on the small contract you gave them ten years previously and now they have expanded and provide other companies with products because they were able to seize the opportunity you offered to them and developed it MaZwane MaZwane has become a legend in South Africa as a pioneering entrepreneur and an inspiration for those who ask questions about opportunities in the informal township economy Her answer to those who doubt whether they can make it is that you do it through perseverance sacrifice seizing opportunities and offering superior products and service In 1989 Phumlaphi Rita Zwane left KwaZulu Natal to find work in Johannesburg after becoming a teenage mother She could count on the love of her family a matric certificate and her faith but had no job prospects and no knowledge of the business world or life in the big cities Her memoir takes the reader from the tough times of finding her feet in Johannesburg through a variety of jobs and life experiences to finally fighting her way to success as a respected member of the township economy and starting the successful Imbizo Shisanyama business MaZwane tells how she progressed from having virtually no income or permanent home to becoming the first person to formalise and commercialise shisanyama in the townships and provide a comfortable home and legacy for her children Along the way she befriended many people who contributed accommodation job opportunities advice and companionship With them cheering her on she learned how to navigate the different and difficult aspects of the hospitality industry and slowly reach her desired place of independent security
