Buddhist master of great stature in the East Asian tradition Born a prince in the medieval Korean state of Koryo 960-1279 he traveled to Song China 960-1279 to study Buddhism and later compiled and published the first collection of East Asian exegetical texts According to the received scholarly tradition after returning to Korea ich n left the Hwa m Huayan school to found a new Ch n tae Tiantai school when he realized that the synthesis between doctrinal learning and meditative practice in the latter would help bring together the discordant sects of Koryo Buddhism In the late twentieth century however scholars began to question the assertion that ich n forsook one school for another arguing that his writings assembled in The Collected Works of State Preceptor Taegak Taegak kuksa munjip do not portray a committed sectarian but a monk dedicated to developing a sophisticated and rigorous system of monastic education that encompassed all Buddhist intellectual traditions In this first comprehensive study of ich n's life and work in English Richard McBride presents translations of select lectures letters essays and poetry from The Collected Works to provide a more balanced view of ich n's philosophy of life and understanding of key Buddhist teachings The translations center on the monk's activities in the pan East Asian Buddhist world and his compilation of scholarly texts writings related to his interactions with royalty and correspondence with his Chinese mentor Jinshui Jingyuan 1011-1088 By incorporating ich n's work associated with doctrinal Buddhism and his poetry McBride clearly shows that even in his most personal work ich n did not abandon Hwa m teachings for those of the Ch n tae but rather he encouraged monks to blend the best learning from all doctrinal traditions with meditative practice
