Introduction To Criminology Question Paper 2011:

Decolonizing the Criminal Question Ana J. Aliverti, Ana Aliverti, Henrique Carvalho, Anastasia Chamberlen, Máximo Sozzo, 2023 This volume explores the uneasy relationship between crime control and colonialism foregrounding the relevance of the legacies of this relationship to criminological enquiries It invites and pursues a better understanding of the links between imperialism and colonialism on the one hand and nationalism and globalisation on the other The African Book Publishing Record ,2013

Policing in Hong Kong Kam C. Wong, 2015-03-06 The HKP Hong Kong Police Asia's Finest is a battle tested professional organization with strong leadership competent staff and deep culture It is also a continuously learning and reforming agency in pursuit of organisational excellence Policing in Hong Kong History and Reform is the first and only book on the development of the Hong Kong

Health and Safety in Contemporary Britain Paul Almond, Mike Esbester, 2018-12-30 This book analyses the perceived legitimacy of health and safety in post 1960 British public life Since 2010 health and safety has appeared to be in crisis being attacked by press politicians and public alike but are these claims of crisis accurate How have understandings of health and safety changed over the past 60 years By exploring the history culture and operation of health and safety in contemporary Britain this book provides a new assessment of an understudied but surprisingly far reaching part of the British political and social landscape Combining archival research with focus group social survey and oral history testimony the book examines the historical background to health and safety how health and safety has been enacted in public and in the workplace the impact of changing economic occupational and social structures on the operation of health and safety and the conflicts and interests that have shaped the area The Politics of Prison Crowding

Simone Santorso, 2023-02-14 The Politics of Prison Crowding investigates recent transformations in Italy's penal system to make the key analytical observation that conditions of overcrowding have become the new normal under which the modern prison system continues to operate and deliver punishment Engaging with the politics of crowding thus entails a direct and pertinent engagement with the modern state's politics of criminal justice and social control Worldwide over the last decades a growing number of jurisdictions have prison systems operating above or to the limit of their capacity yet little attention has been paid to these elements in the analysis of prison politics and day to day functions By exploring the crowding issue this book offers an original and interesting insight into the politics and dynamics characterising contemporary prison systems The hypothesis of this book is that the politics of prison crowding have become the template for the daily administration of the prison system which incorporates not just policy and rules but day to day functions and practices regulating life behind bars Through interviews in modern Italian prisons the book brings to light a radical redefinition of a carceral system that harshens the delivery of punishment while justifying this exacerbation of pain by adding new bureaucratic logic to the administration of the penal system within a narrative of compliance to human rights standards By shedding new light on prison politics to open new critical perspectives and research paths The Politics of Prison Crowding offers a fundamental tool to scholars students and all professional policymakers and practitioners dealing with prison policies and the politics of justice

Dignity, Women, and Immigration Detention Alice Gerlach,2022-12-30 This book explores the experience of immigration enforcement for women who have been detained in immigration detention in the UK Drawing upon in depth interviews with women who have been in immigration detention centres Dignity Women and Immigration Detention demonstrates how immigration detention violates women's sense of dignity and in doing so causes women to suffer pains that are incongruent with the administrative purpose of immigration removal centres. The women interviewed were either detained in an Immigration Removal Centre had spent time in this centre before being released into the UK community or had been removed to Jamaica following time in immigration detention. This book argues that the current system used by the UK government is unfit for purpose and damaging to many of those who are ensnared within it. In examining dignity violation, lack of autonomy and diminishment, the book also considers possible alternatives to the current practice of incarceration and what can be done to alleviate the harms that are currently inflicted on women during the process of immigration enforcement in the UK. An accessible and compelling read, this book will appeal to students, scholars and practitioners in criminology, sociology, law, social policy and all those interested in listening to the unheard voices of detained women.
