Living in Spin Andrew P. Porter,2011 All the hard questions about human action are about what to include in a story what can be left out and how to characterize what gets included A narrative selects from all the world s motions which ones are part of or relevant to an act and so narratives give us what narratives have already shaped the relation is circular Many narratives can be told of an act not all consistent Some features of human action events off stage determine what s happening on stage many actions pass through motions in view an act can be changed after the fact action presupposes language what an act is can be highly ambiguous we judge acts and narratives because we have a stake in them
