Conceptual Art:

Conceptual Art Alexander Alberro, Blake Stimson, 2000-08-25 This landmark anthology collects for the first time the key historical documents that helped give definition and purpose to the conceptual art movement Compared to other avant garde movements that emerged in the 1960s conceptual art has received relatively little serious attention by art historians and critics of the past twenty five years in part because of the difficult intellectual nature of the art This lack of attention is particularly striking given the tremendous influence of conceptual art on the art of the last fifteen years on critical discussion surrounding postmodernism and on the use of theory by artists curators critics and historians This landmark anthology collects for the first time the key historical documents that helped give definition and purpose to the movement It also contains more recent memoirs by participants as well as critical histories of the period by some of today's leading artists and art historians Many of the essays and artists statements have been translated into English specifically for this volume A good portion of the exchange between artists critics and theorists took place in difficult to find limited edition catalogs small journals and private correspondence These influential documents are gathered here for the first time along with a number of previously unpublished essays and interviews Contributors Alexander Alberro Art Language Terry Atkinson Michael Baldwin Robert Barry Gregory Battcock Mel Bochner Sigmund Bode Georges Boudaille Marcel Broodthaers Benjamin Buchloh Daniel Buren Victor Burgin Ian Burn Jack Burnham Luis Camnitzer John Chandler Sarah Charlesworth Michel Clauro Jean Clay Michael Corris Eduardo Costa Thomas Crow Hanne Darboven Ra l Escari Piero Gilardi Dan Graham Maria Teresa Gramuglio Hans Haacke Charles Harrison Roberto Jacoby Mary Kelly Joseph Kosuth Max Kozloff Christine Kozlov Sol LeWitt Lucy Lippard Lee Lozano Kynaston McShine Cildo Meireles Catherine Millet Olivier Mosset John Murphy H lio Oiticica Michel Parmentier Adrian Piper Yvonne Rainer Mari Carmen Ramirez Nicolas Rosa Harold Rosenberg Martha Rosler Allan Sekula Jeanne Siegel Seth Siegelau Terry Smith Robert Smithson Athena Tacha Spear Blake Stimson Niele Toroni Mierle Ukeles Jeff Wall Rolf Wedewer Ian Wilson

Rewriting Conceptual Art Michael Newman, Jon Bird, 1999-12 An international movement that developed along separate but parallel lines in Europe and America during the 1970s Conceptual Art grew out of the legacy of Marcel Duchamp Aiming to completely redefine the relationships between the production definition and ownership of artworks and their various audiences Conceptual artists rejected traditional formats media and definitions Instead they chose to address some of the key issues underlying modern life and art These included the gulf between initial idea and finished work the value assigned works of art in modern economies the role of women and of feminine creativity in general the politics of exhibition organization in short the ways art and the art world have been defined for centuries Among the notable figures whose work is discussed in essays ranging from the evaluative to the theoretical are Judy Chicago Robert Morris Sol LeWitt Marcel Broodthaers and Mary Kelly The influence of Conceptual Art continues to be felt today in the work of such controversial young artists as Rachel Whiteread and Damien Hirst back cover Philosophy and Conceptual Art

Peter Goldie, Elisabeth Schellekens, 2007-03-22 The fourteen prominent analytic philosophers writing here engage with the cluster of philosophical questions raised by conceptual art. They address four broad questions: What kind of art is conceptual art? What follows from the fact that conceptual art does not aim to have aesthetic value? What knowledge or understanding can we gain from conceptual art? How ought we to appreciate conceptual art? Conceptual art, broadly understood by the contributors as beginning with Marcel Duchamp's ready-mades and as continuing beyond the 1970s to include some of today's contemporary art, is grounded in the notion that the artist's idea is central to art and contrary to tradition that the material work is by no means essential to the art as such. To use the words of the conceptual artist Sol LeWitt: In conceptual art the idea of the concept is the most important aspect of the work and the execution is a perfunctory affair. Given this so-called dematerialization of the art object, the emphasis on cognitive value and the frequent appeal to philosophy by many conceptual artists, there are many questions that are raised by conceptual art that should be of interest to analytic philosophers. Why then has so little work been done in this area? This volume is most probably the first collection of papers by analytic Anglo-American philosophers tackling these concerns head-on. Contributors: Margaret Boden, Diarmuid Costello, Gregory Currie, David Davies, Peter Goldie, Robert Hopkins, Matthew Kieran, Peter Lamarque, Dominic McIver Lopes, Derek Matravers, Elisabeth Schellekens, Kathleen Stock, Carolyn Wilde, and the Art Language group. Philosophy and Conceptual Art

Robert Bailey, 2025-05-30 This study provides a new interpretation of art after modernism by foregrounding the importance of conceptual thinking as a pervasive force for change in art and art history since 1950. Robert Bailey shows how distinctions between art and art history gave way as conceptual thinking provided artists and art historians with a common means to reassess what art could be and do in the world. Bailey assesses the results of artful and scholarly inquiries, combining creative activity with intellectual rigor to proffer new approaches to a variety of social and environmental concerns ranging from questions about human identity, including race, class, gender, and sexuality, to activist efforts to redress everything from abortion access to migrants' rights to climate change. This book provides both a historical overview of these developments and close analyses of key works and texts spanning 1950 to the present and encompassing broad geographic scope, with special attention paid to Indigenous art. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history and contemporary art. Postscript

Andrea Andersson, 2018-01-01 Postscript is the first collection of writings on the subject of conceptual writing by a diverse field of scholars in the realms of art literature, media, as well as the artists themselves. Conceptual Art

Peter Osborne, 2011-03-23 Conceptual art marks a major turning point in late twentieth-century art. An art of ideas which can be written, published, performed, fabricated, or which can simply remain inside your head it is also an art of questions Since its emergence in the mid 1960s it has challenged our precepts about not only art but society politics and the media An international movement Conceptual art encompasses not only North America and Western Europe but also South America Eastern Europe Russia China and Japan Its legacy is global ranging from small local participatory projects to large scale installations at major museums and biennales This comprehensive volume combines in one book an authoritative Survey essay by philosopher and art historian Peter Osborne tracing Conceptual art s origins in Europe Japan and the USA its development throughout the 1960s and 1970s and its legacy in contemporary art a Works section documenting the key works divided usefully into six distinctive types of Conceptual art and a Documents section including texts by philosophers and writers who crucially influenced the movement alongside key original texts by artists critics and art historians

A LOOK AT CONCEPTUAL ART MAZLUM GÖZE, 2022-11-07 1 INTRODUCTION Imagine a profession that is thought to have no limits but the job itself can set its limits Whether the field of this profession is human and everything that belongs to human beings you have in your hands your self and the fact that you live in the world Let these seemingly small facts be interpreted by being shaped and now I ask are there not explicit or hidden symbols in the thought you have formed Here in Conceptual Art he tells us that we can apply art and the symbols in the work to everything anywhere However it should be known that if you are going to make Conceptual Art your infrastructure must be ready Where do we find the factors that make up thought that has been transformed into a form that we can apply everywhere Isn t it the symbols that are involved in the work done voluntarily or involuntarily The events we experience form the final state of our psychology When the artist puts aside the concern about where and how and only makes form this form will be nothing at first but then it will turn into many things this process can even make us someone else later on People can find the latest state of their psychology in every action they take to get rid of the troubles of life We can find ourselves in every movie we watch in every article we read It s about how we look Art does this to us and when we go outside it places many facts that we think are nothing So why should the artist be stuck with dogmas during the production and transmission of his work The artist can see his wish to transfer in a tree stump Isn t it natural to consider the ceremony of throwing out a garbage disposal as an act of getting rid of the excess in our lives and presenting it to the audience as a work of art Well wouldn t the artist displaying this interpretation offer us symbols at some point Although the artist hides this maybe not in the first reading but after that he will definitely give it away Is the artist s most natural state his primitive state Everything is hidden in primitiveness The foundations of many formations that we consider new today are hidden in the Cro Magnon the first race of the Homo Sapiens subspecies Maybe it was magic maybe it was the ingredients of the magic maybe it was the ceremony Regardless of how these ceremonies are they are the factors that naturally make up the theater Doesn t it point to the earth s art that they have made on the mountain the stone and the soil Of course there are many effects Let s take a subject the first invention of primitive man was a needle Let s say you make your clothes with this invention Doesn t the position of the person that they think while making this dress affect the dress they have seen and experienced until that day Is it not possible to place images that distinguish the owner of the relevant dress from other people Yes it is possible and very normal action Now let s fictionalize this person superficially there is a tribe and the owner of the dress is the leader of the tribe and the person who makes the dress is the man he loves the father of the children he has given birth to The only woman of the tribe who sews a dress will inevitably place images that distinguish it from the other men of the tribe We can even find the distinguishing feature in the differences in the seams hidden in the dress This has influenced fashion painting and many other branches of art He disciplined all the arts within himself Of course his thoughts and dreams during production are scenarios It is fiction and he is a screenwriter himself Dreaming is the most natural impulse and often a life support unit that cannot be inhibited It has been scientifically proven that even animals dream The dream is a fiction The human being who is more developed than the animal knows the way of conveying this fiction The must have is the type of person who sets the rules So it is human who can lift it Let him choose his own presentation as he constructs and shapes what he imagines Whatever the material is let him do it just for art for himself or to give a message to people without worrying about color and balance The artist who makes conceptual art contains his own truth that hides all the elements no matter where he conveys and expresses This truth is hidden in icons The purpose of this research is to convey the existence of this fact to the reader

Systems We Have Loved Eve Meltzer,2013-07-02 By the early 1960s theorists like L vi Strauss Lacan Foucault and Barthes had created a world ruled by signifying structures and pictured through the grids of language information and systems Artists soon followed turning to language and its related forms to devise a new conceptual approach to art making Examining the ways in which artists shared the structuralist devotion to systems of many sorts Systems We Have Loved shows that even as structuralism encouraged the advent of conceptual art it also raised intractable problems that artists were forced to confront Considering such notable art figures as Mary Kelly Robert Morris Robert Smithson and Rosalind Krauss Eve Meltzer argues that during this period the visual arts depicted and tested the far reaching claims about subjectivity espoused by theorists She offers a new way of framing two of the twentieth century s most transformative movements one artistic one expansively theoretical and she reveals their shared dream or nightmare of the world as a system of signs By endorsing this view Meltzer proposes these artists drew attention to the fictions and limitations of this dream even as they risked getting caught in the very systems they had adopted The first book to describe art s embrace of the world as an information system Systems We Have Loved breathes new life into the study of conceptual art Image and Text in Conceptual Art Eve Kalyva,2017-07-14 This book examines the use of image and text juxtapositions in conceptual art as a strategy for challenging several ideological and institutional demands placed on art While conceptual art is generally identified by its use of language this book makes clear exactly how language was used In particular it asks How has the presence of language in a visual art context changed the ways art is talked about theorised and produced Image and Text in
