The Vietnam War, 1954–1975

Lesson 2 Vietnam Divides the Nation

Review Questions: Outlining

DIRECTIONS: Read the lesson and complete the outline below. Refer to your textbook to fill in the blanks.

- I. The Antiwar Movement Emerges
- A. As the Vietnam War dragged on, support waned because many believed that the Johnson administration was not telling the truth about the war.
 - B. Many Americans believed a credibility gap existed because of inconsistencies between what was shown by media and what the administration said about the war.
 - C. Students and teachers at universities held teach-ins to explain why they opposed the war, while many protesters focused on what they thought was an unfair draft system. Most of the soldiers were working-class and minority youths.
 - D. As the war went on, many young men burned their draft cards while an estimated 500,000 refused to go.

Many soldiers argued that if they were old enough to fight, they were old enough to vote. The 26th amendment gave 18-year-olds the right to vote.

II. The Peace Push

- A. Senator J. William Fulbright, a Democrat from Arkansas, led a Senate subcommittee that investigated the war. His report, called the Fulbright Report, was highly critical. Americans, however, were alarmed that an enemy might launch a large-scale attack on South Vietnam.
- B. In March 1968, Johnson declared the nation with the announcement that he would not seek reelection.
- C. The administration picked the reform MLK Jr. as its nominee for president.
- D. Sens. Bobby Kennedy and Democratic Party candidate Hubert H. Humphrey were also in the running. Republican candidate Richard Nixon won the election because he promised to bring the war to a quick end and to restore law and order to the country.
