

A Christmas Carol

Stave 4 – The Last of the Spirits

1. Why does Scrooge kneel before this Spirit? (81)
The way in through which the Spirit moves seems to scatter gloom and mystery.
2. What does the Spirit look like? (81)
The Spirit is shrouded in a deep black garment, which conceals his head, his face, his form, and leaves nothing visible but one outstretched hand. If not for the hand it would be difficult to separate the Spirit from the darkness.
3. What is the Spirit's name? (81)
Although the spirit does not speak, Scrooge knows that he is in the presence of the Ghost of Christmas Yet To Come.
4. What does Scrooge know this Spirit will show him? (81)
Scrooge knows that the Spirit will show him shadows of the things that have not happened, but will happen in the time before them.
5. Why does Scrooge fear this Spirit? (81-82)
Scrooge has barely started. It frightens him to know that behind the dusty glass there are ghastly eyes fixed upon him, while he cannot see anything but a spectral hand and one great heap of black. He tells the Spirit that he is frightened of him, but he is prepared to bear his company and do it with a thankful heart. He asks the Spirit to speak to him, but it will not.
6. Where does the Spirit take Scrooge first? (82)
They are in the heart of the city, in 'Change amongst the merchants.
7. What are the men in the 'Change discussing? (82-83)
The first group of men is discussing the death of someone in a very casual way. They laugh about where the dead man left his money and talk about the funeral being cheap since they don't think anybody will go. One gentleman says that he will go if lunch is provided. One claims to be the best friend of the dead man because they used to sing and speak whenever they met. Scrooge knows the men and looked toward the Spirit for an explanation. Instead the Spirit points to two other men, who are very wealthy and of great importance. Scrooge always made a point of standing well in their esteem in a strictly business point of view. One says that Old Scratch has got his men at last.
8. What does Scrooge decide to do even though he does not understand the conversation he hears? (83)
Scrooge does not understand what the Spirit thinks is important in conversations, so tried but he feels assured that they must have some hidden purpose. He sets himself to consider what it could be. Although he cannot imagine whatsoever they applied, he resolves to treasure every word and everything he sees, and especially to observe the shadow of himself when he appears. He expects that the conduct of his future self will give him the clue to solve this riddle.
9. Where does the Spirit take Scrooge next and what is it like? (84)
They enter an obscure part of town where Scrooge has never been before, although he recognizes its situation and its bad repute. The ways are foul and narrow; the shops and houses wretched; the people half-naked, drunken, slipshod, ugly. Alleys and archways dingy with filth, and full of small and dim, and lit upon the struggling streets. The whole quarter reeks with crime, with filth, and misery.
