Jonathan Kozol Amazing Grace Chapter Summaries:

A Theology as Big as the City Raymond J. Bakke, 2025-07-29 As we look at the world class cities around our planet we face five new urban realities a crack cocaine epidemic assault weapons massive numbers of homeless children HIV AIDS and in the U S what Time magazine has called the browning of America The needs of the urban population are greater than ever As our cities swell with immigrants I m reminded that Jesus was born in a borrowed barn in Asia and became an African refugee in Egypt so the Christmas story is about an international migrant Furthermore a whole village full of baby boys died for Jesus before he had the opportunity to die for them on the cross Surely this Jesus understands the pain of children who die for the sins of adults in our cities How does God see the city What does Scripture have to say about urban ministry These are the questions Ray Bakke has systematically addressed beginning with Genesis and continuing through to Revelation Here is a biblical theology that will constantly surprise and challenge as you get a glimpse of how big God s view of the city really is

KOZOL,1995 Fire in the Ashes Jonathan Kozol,2012-08-28 In this powerful and culminating work about a group of inner city children he has known for many years Jonathan Kozol returns to the scene of his prize winning books Rachel and Her Children and Amazing Grace and to the children he has vividly portrayed to share with us their fascinating journeys and unexpected victories as they grow into adulthood For nearly fifty years Jonathan has pricked the conscience of his readers by laying bare the savage inequalities inflicted upon children for no reason but the accident of being born to poverty within a wealthy nation A winner of the National Book Award the Robert F Kennedy Book Award and countless other honors he has persistently crossed the lines of class and race first as a teacher then as the author of tender and heart breaking books about the children he has called the outcasts of our nation s ingenuity But Jonathan is not a distant and detached reporter His own life has been radically transformed by the children who have trusted and befriended him Never has this intimate acquaintance with his subjects been more apparent or more stirring than in Fire in the Ashes as Jonathan tells the stories of young men and women who have come of age in one of the most destitute communities of the United States. Some of them never do recover from the battering they undergo in their early years but many more battle back with fierce and often jubilant determination to overcome the formidable obstacles they face. As we watch these glorious children grow into the fullness of a healthy and contributive maturity they ignite a flame of hope not only for themselves but for our society. The urgent issues that confront our urban schools—a devastating race gap, a pathological regime of obsessive testing and drilling students for exams instead of giving them the rich curriculum that excites a love of learning—are interwoven through these stories. Why certain children rise above it all, graduate from high school and do well in college while others are defeated by the time they enter adolescence lies at the essence of this work. Jonathan Kozol is the author of Death at an Early Age, Savage Inequalities, and other books on children and their education. He has been called today's most eloquent spokesman for America's disenfranchised. But he believes young people speak most eloquently for themselves and in this book so full of the vitality and spontaneity of youth we hear their testimony.

The tumors are no longer growing because of an experimental drug, but she will never fully recover. Hazel is watching television when her mother makes her get up and go to her cancer support group. Hazel dislikes the group but her mother makes her attend because she thinks she needs to socialize more. She arrives just before the group begins. Isaac, her friend, talks about the surgery he will have in a few weeks. He had cancer in one eye and that eye was removed. However, the cancer is now in his other eye and he will have to have that eye removed as well. As added support, Isaac brought his friend Augustus Waters to the support group. Augustus, a very good-looking young man, is also a cancer survivor. He had osteosarcoma that required the removal of his leg. After support group, Hazel and Augustus wait outside for her mother. Isaac is with his girlfriend, Monica, making out on the far side of the church. Augustus asks Hazel to come to his house to watch V for Vendetta with him. He thinks she looks like Natalie Portman as she was in that movie However Hazel refuses when Augustus pops a cigarette into his mouth until he tells her that it is just a metaphor She finds it so amusing the irony of putting something that causes cancer into this mouth but not giving it the power to cause cancer that she agrees to go to his home Chapter 2 Augustus is a terrible driver because he cannot feel the gas pedal under his fake leg Hazel makes him admit the only reason he has a driver s license is because the examiner felt sorry for him She calls it a Cancer Perk They share their cancer stories At Augustus house Hazel meets his parents Then they go downstairs to his bedroom Augustus tells Hazel that he used to play basketball but before he was diagnosed he realized it was pointless the act of constantly throwing a ball into a basket Then he asks her what she likes to do She tells him about her favorite book An Imperial Affliction He agrees to read it if she will read his favorite book the Price of Dawn Augustus and Hazel go into the living room to watch the movie Hazel thinks the movie is a guy thing Augustus drives her home and asks her to call him later She promises to call when she finishes the book
