China Pakistan Economic Corridor Cpec:

The China-Pakistan Economic Corridor of the Belt and Road Initiative Siegfried O. Wolf, 2019-06-20 This book focuses on the implementation of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC a multi billion dollar infrastructure development project intended to connect Asia with Europe the Middle East and Africa By introducing a new analytical approach to the study of economic corridors it gauges the anticipated economic and geopolitical impacts on the region and discusses whether the CPEC will serve as a pioneer project for future regional cooperation between and integration of sub national regions such as Balochistan Khyber Pakhtunkhwa the Federally Administered Tribal Areas and Gilgit Baltistan Further it explores the interests expectations and policy approaches of both Chinese and Pakistani local and central governments with regard to the CPEC s implementation Given its scope the book will appeal to regional and spatial sciences scholars as well as social scientists interested in the regional impacts of economic corridors It also offers valuable information for policymakers in countries participating in the Belt and Road Initiative or other Chinese supported development projects China Pakistan Economic Corridor Needs a Counter Strategy of India Arlen Clemens, 2018-08-18 The China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC is not a single road it s a network It will spur the growth of industrial zones supported by energy plants connecting Kashgar in China to Gwadar Balochistan should be the primary beneficiary of the project Khyber Pakhtunkhwa will also benefit from it as there s no discrimination against any province China Pakistan Economic Corridor programme CPEC is anchored The programme amounts to over 45 billion US dollars and was agreed between the two countries in April 2015 The corridor has its starting point in the Chinese built port of Gwadar on Pakistani Balochistan s southern coast at the Arabian Sea and is linked to Chinese funded infrastructural mega projects that are regional in nature The hype surrounding the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC to be built through Gilgit Baltistan resurfaced with the recent visit of Chinese President Xi Jinping to Pakistan The visit yet again generated an animated discourse in the global media about the corridor s future The long gestated CPEC project received initial traction during Nawaz Sharif s visits to China in the year 2014 Subsequently on his maiden visit to Pakistan in April 2015 the Chinese President reaffirmed the previously announced commitment worth 46 billion towards the CPEC The CPEC is considered a significant project that seeks to cement Sino Pakistan bilateral ties and further consolidate their strategic ties The corridor will run through India s periphery more significantly Gilgit Baltistan claimed by India as part of the erstwhile princely state of Jammu and Kashmir J K In due course this geographical reality of the CPEC could potentially impinge upon India s geopolitical calculations and pose a strategic challenge India needs to be concerned about China attempting to replicate in PoK the well perfected policy it has applied earlier in Tibet Xinjiang and across Central Asia Beijing would be seeking a historic opportunity to fill up gaps where India has largely failed Considering PoK s strategic location as a connecting point of South West Central and East Asia China s move has implications for limiting India s outreach to the critical Eurasian region This book will definitely prove to be a boon to teachers students and research

Debnath,2017-10-25 Master s Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Politics Region South Asia grade 1 65 University of Erfurt Willy Brandt School language English abstract In recent times Chinese foreign policy has transformed considerably and it is apparent that China now aims to reinvent its global image and also step up its clout and impact at the international level It also aims to give rise to an economic order that serves Chinese interests something that China cannot expect from the largely Western dominated institutions The establishment of the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank AIIB was a decisive step in this direction In a broader sense this can be related to China s ambitious One Belt One Road OBOR initiative which envisages the revival of the erstwhile Silk Road through two major projects A Silk Road Economic Belt and a 21st Century Maritime Silk Road In April 2015 President Xi Jinping announced 46 billion dollar investment plans in Pakistan in the shape of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC which will connect the Chinese city of Kashgar to the strategically located Gwadar Port in Pakistan This was conceived as a part of the OBOR initiative Although a daunting undertaking the successful completion of this project would result in unparalleled economic and strategic gains for both the parties involved Also the increased cooperation between these two neighbors engenders major ramifications for the foreign relations of both the countries This thesis attempts to take a closer look at the CPEC and expound the strategic implications of the project for both China and Pakistan

China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC): Challenges and the Way Forward Naval Postgraduate School, Muzaffar Hussain, 2019-09-02 The China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC the latest venture in a history of bilateral economic cooperation with a 46 billion investment in energy and infrastructure development in Pakistan is considered a game changer for Pakistan s economy As a flagship project of China s One Belt One Road initiative the corridor will connect Kashgar in Western China with the port of Gwadar in Pakistan on the Arabian Sea serving as a gateway to the Middle East Africa and Central Asia The CPEC in addition to boosting Pakistan s economy and meeting China s energy needs and development of its western region is likely to bring stability in the region through economic integration Nonetheless a project of such scale certainly faces equally significant challenges This thesis examines obstacles that have the potential to affect the implementation of the project including the unstable situation in Afghanistan competing interests of immediate neighbors like India and Iran especially India s suspicions and U S concerns about the initiative The thesis draws from a wide range of scholarly and peer reviewed literature academic journals think tank reports and government sponsored studies Missing from their analysis though is the consideration of the regional geopolitical dynamics and Pakistan s domestic challenges particularly insecurity and violence that can affect the implementation of the CPEC project This thesis seeks to address that gap and provides policy recommendations for Pakistan to deal with potential impediments in implementation of the project

Reconfiguring the China-Pakistan Economic Corridor Jeremy Garlick, 2021-11-28 There has been a great deal of speculation and prognostication about the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC The project s name suggests it is intended to be an economic corridor connecting Pakistan overland with China s Xinjiang province This book examines whether CPEC's primary purpose is as an overland conduit for trade and economic cooperation between China and Pakistan. The key finding is that aims related to regional geopolitics and internal security have in reality a more significant impact. The book demonstrates that China's goals in Pakistan are primarily geopolitical rather than geo-economic since the notion of constructing an economic and transportation corridor between Pakistan and China is logistically and economically problematic due to a range of foreseeable problems. Most importantly, border disputes with India and the containment of domestic separatism motivate are the driving forces for cooperation between the partners. This book will be of interest to scholars who research the BRI as well as policy makers.

The China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) James Pershing, Victor Perez Garcia (MPP), 2019

China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) Sujan R. Chinoy, 2021

The China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) has been earmarked as a flagship project of the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) which is described as Chinese President Xi Jinping's signature foreign policy initiative and a grand strategy aimed at restoring China's rightful great power status in the world. It is a major plank in China's geo-strategic and economic architecture for the region using Pakistan to secure an exploitative strategic perch in South Asia and the Arabian Sea overlooking the crucial Persian Gulf, the west coast of India and the east coast of Africa. It is increasingly clear that not only will the CPEC extract a high price from Pakistan in terms of its sovereignty, it will also entail a substantial if not downright usurious economic cost. The opaque nature of the CPEC and its geostrategic underpinnings detract vastly from any economic growth and development that it may deliver. These are some of the issues that this paper attempts to scan.

Economic and Strategic Implications of China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) Ayesha Khan, 2022

China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) is one of the corridors of China's Belt, namely how infrastructure investment may or may not alter the economic growth trajectory of a country and the role of redesigned supply chain and logistics in boosting local industry. Last but not the least, the much contentious topic of debt trap is also discussed. The study relies on both quantitative and qualitative research methods depending on the nature of the designed research questions.

China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) P. Joseph Mario Ritvik, 2022-02-28 The China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC is essentially a framework for regional connectivity The aim of the project is to connect China's north western region of Xinjiang to the Gwadar port of Baluchistan It is a part of the Belt and Road Initiative a Chinese Initiative for boosting multinational economic cooperation and prosperity At the international level legality is frequently overshadowed by geopolitics When it comes to a project such as the Belt and Road Initiative despite being initiated at the international level the entire project is entirely dependent on the domestic legal frameworks of the member states for actual implementation The China Pakistan Economic Corridor requires that the legal system in Pakistan is geared and ready for the incoming projects and the inevitable legal disputes that may arise given the involvement of several private parties from both China and Pakistan The current international treaties and covenants between the two nations will also play a significant role in the success of the CPEC as any development and investment from China into Pakistan will be governed by these treaties Apart from the legal practicalities of the actual CPEC projects the legal tangle between India and Pakistan over the Gilgit Baltistan issue will also play an important role in determining the success of the CPEC This monograph makes an attempt to cut through the political rhetoric and promises of economic development from China to see whether the legal climate in Pakistan is suitable for the CPEC to take off and bring in the promised economic rewards that Pakistan hopes to gain by partnering with China Part I The International Trade and Investment Regime between China and Pakistan Part II Dispute Settlement Framework for CPEC Part III India's Legal Concerns Over Territorial Sovereignty Role in CPEC The Way Forward Legal or Political
