Autocracy - A government governed by one person

- Absolute Monarchy - Usually a king, leadership is passed down to the heir
- Dictatorship - Leader makes it against the law to disagree with the government

Oligarchy - A government governed by a group of people

- Aristocracy - Ruled by people who claim to be better and of higher status than everyone else (usually rich and have lots of privilege and education)
- Theocracy - Ruled by a group of religious leaders who make the laws of the government the same as their religion

- Direct Democracy - Every citizen votes on every law and decision made by the government (best used in small/local governments, or on occasional decisions)
- Representative Democracy (republic) - Citizens vote on other people to make decisions (Normally used in larger/federal governments)

Totalitarian - The Government isn't limited in power, and tries to eliminate organizations that challenge their authority. They aim to control all political, economic, and social life.

Describe the rights and responsibilities that citizens have in a democracy.

Citizenship - Can be defined as Enlightened Political Engagement looking at greek roots

Political Engagement - Citizens need to be informed in order for them to engage in politics.
