

Activity 2: Elections and Voting

Run Your Own Mock Election

A General Election is when every eligible person (aged 18 and over), living permanently in the UK can vote for the person that they would like to be their MP (Member of Parliament) and speak up for them in Parliament. The country is split into areas and each has their own MP. There are 650 MPs in total in the UK.

Now it's your chance to imagine you are trying to win votes to be an MP in the House of Commons; what important issues would you want to talk about? Why should people vote for you?

Work as a group to come up with some ideas...

1. Choose a name for your party.

2. Which areas are most important to your party?

Choose your top three from the list below, numbering them 1 to 3 with 1 being the most important to you.
