Frank, 1961 Persuasion and Healing Jerome David Frank, 1971 Persuasion and Healing Jerome David Frank, 1965

Fish, 2008-06-19 In an era of globalization characterized by widespread migration and cultural contacts psychologists counselors and other mental health professionals face a unique challenge how does one practice successfully when working with clients from so many different backgrounds Gielen Draguns and Fish argue that an understanding of the general principles of multicultural counseling is of great importance to all practitioners The lack of this knowledge can have several negative consequences during therapy including differences in expectations between counselor and client misdiagnosis of the client's concerns missed non verbal cues and the client feeling that she has been misunderstood This volume focuses on the general nature of cultural influences in counseling rather than on counseling specific ethnic groups Counseling practices from all over the world not just those of Western society are explored Bringing together the work of a diverse group of international experts the editors have compiled a volume that is not only concise and teachable but also an essential guidebook for all mental health professionals The Great Psychotherapy Debate Bruce E. Wampold, Zac E. Imel, 2015-01-30 The second edition of The Great Psychotherapy Debate has been updated and revised to expand the presentation of the Contextual Model which is derived from a scientific understanding of how humans heal in a social context and explains findings from a vast array of psychotherapies studies This model provides a compelling alternative to traditional research on psychotherapy which tends to focus on identifying the most effective treatment for particular disorders through emphasizing the specific ingredients of treatment The new edition also includes a history of healing practices medicine and psychotherapy an examination of therapist effects and a thorough review of the research on common factors such as the alliance expectations and empathy A Short Introduction to Psychotherapy Christine Lister-Ford,2007-06-18 A Short
