

the Power of a Praying Parent

Marlene Stewart

Day 1: Parent

Lord, we submit ourselves to You. We realize that parenting children is the way You would have us, but is beyond our human abilities. We know we need You to help us. We want to partner with You and partake of Your gifts of wisdom, discernment, revelation, and guidance. We also need Your strength and patience, along with a generous portion of Your love flowing through us.

Teach us how to love the way You love. Where we need to be healed, delivered, changed, nurtured, or made whole, we invite You to do that in us. Help us to walk in righteousness and integrity before You. Teach us Your ways, enable us to obey Your commandments and do only what is pleasing in Your sight. May the beauty of Your spirit be so evident in us that we will be godly role models.

Give us the communication, teaching, and nurturing skills that we must have. Make us the parents You want us to be and teach us how to pray and truly intercede for the lives of these children. Lord, You said in Your word, "Whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive" (Matthew 21:22). In Jesus' name we ask that You will increase our faith to believe for all the things You've put on our hearts to pray for concerning these children.
