

CHINESE CINDERELLA QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS 2024-2025 ALREADY SOLVED AND GRADED A+

What does the story suggest about the role of the fairy godmother in the original version?

Answer: The fairy godmother is a supernatural figure who helps Cinderella escape her abusive household and find her prince. She is a key element of the story's magical realism.

Why does the author use the term "Chinese Cinderella" instead of just "Cinderella"?
Answer: The author uses this term to highlight the cultural differences between the original European story and the Chinese version. It emphasizes the unique aspects of the Chinese Cinderella story.

What does the author suggest about the role of the prince in the original version?
Answer: The author suggests that the prince is a passive figure who is chosen by fate. He is not actively involved in the story, and his role is primarily to marry Cinderella and provide her with a happy ending.

How did the author's view of the prince change over time?
Answer: The author's view of the prince changed over time as she grew older. She initially saw him as a romantic figure, but later came to see him as a passive and somewhat selfish figure.

Why do you think the author chose to write this story?
Answer: The author chose to write this story to explore the theme of identity and the role of women in Chinese society. She wanted to show how a woman can find her own path and become a heroine in her own story.

How do you think the author's view of the prince changed over time?
