Ethics and Affects in the Fiction of Alice Munro Amelia DeFalco, Lorraine York, 2018-09-03 Ethics and Affects in the Fiction of Alice Munro explores the representation of embodied ethics and affects in Alice Munro's writing. The collection illustrates how Munro's short stories powerfully intersect with important theoretical trends in literary studies including affect studies, ethical criticism, age studies, disability studies, animal studies, and posthumanism. These essays offer us an Alice Munro who is not the kindly Canadian icon reinforcing small town verities who was celebrated and perpetuated in acts of national pedagogy with her Nobel Prize win; they ponder instead an edgier, messier Munro whose fictions of affective and ethical perplexities disturb rather than comfort. In Munro's fiction, unruly embodiments and affects interfere with normative identity and humanist conventions of the human based on reason and rationality, destabilizing prevailing gender and sexual politics, ethical responsibilities, and affective economies. As these essays make clear, Munro's fiction reminds us of the consequences of everyday affects and the extraordinary ordinariness of the ethical encounters we engage again and again.

More Time Lee Clark Mitchell, 2019 More Time traces the careers of four short story writers: Alice Munro, Andre Dubus, Joy Williams, and Lydia Davis. The focus is on the latter part of these writers' careers and how each author has developed and crafted a late style.

Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books J.R. (Tim) Struthers, Ailsa Cox, Corinne Bigot, Catherine Sheldrick Ross, What in terms of Alice Munro's creative artistry and creative power allowed her to become the first and only short story writer, the first and only Canadian, and just the thirteenth woman in history to win the Nobel Prize in Literature? And exactly when during Munro's career did her artistry and power advance to ensure that she would earn such world-wide renown? The answers lie in studying the boldly innovative yet greatly under-examined group of her four mid-career breakthrough books. Our volume therefore provides a carefully orchestrated analysis of Munro's subtle yet potent handling of form, technique, and style both within individual stories and across these special collections.

Reading Alice Munro's Breakthrough Books: A Suite in Four Voices not only addresses a significant vacancy in Munro criticism and by extension in all short story criticism but equally importantly offers an exciting new model for how criticism can be collectively written.

The Moons of Jupiter Alice Munro, 2011-12-21 Eleven witty, subtle, and passionate The New York Times Book Review stories from Nobel Prize-winning author Alice Munro: a true master of the form. Salman Rushdie: Alice Munro's fine and intelligent stories are like Edward Hopper paintings lit with a relentless clarity and richly illuminating the perplexities of human connection, their possibilities, and pain. Washington Post Book World: In these piercingly lovely and endlessly surprising stories by one of the most acclaimed practitioners of the art of fiction, many things happen: there are betrayals and reconciliations, love affairs consummated and mourned. But the true events in The Moons of Jupiter are the ways in which the characters are transformed over time, coming to view their past selves with anger, regret, and infinite compassion that communicate themselves to us with electrifying force.
