Dd Basu Law Of The Press:

Law of the Press Durga Das Basu,1996 With reference to India Freedom of Press Under the Indian Constitution Bhagat Ram Sharma,1993 The Press in Indo-U.S. Relations G. Lakshmi,1999 Law of International Telecommunications in India Krishna Deo Gaur,1988 Freedom of the Press in India Joseph Minattur,2012-12-06
This study is intended to present to the reader the main provisions of law affecting freedom of the press in India It is specially concerned with examining how far freedom of the press obtains in free India It is proposed to discuss constitutional provisions and their application through various legislative measures with a view to seeing whether these provisions are sufficiently protective of this freedom The introductory chapter attempts to indicate what is meant by freedom of the press In the first chapter constitutional provisions are set out and discussed The next five chapters deal in the main with statutory provisions relating to this freedom The concluding chapter purports to make certain suggestions in relation to repeal or amendment of a few of these provisions It may be mentioned that this study deals only with freedom of the press in normal times The subject of civil liberties in India during a period of emergency has been dealt with in the present writer's doctoral thesis Emergency Powers in the States of Southern Asia London University 1959 In the preparation of this study I have benefited from the guidance and encouragement given by several persons and the assistance and facilities provided by various institutions I wish to express my thanks to all of them The Constitution in Practice: Rights and Duties Ritu Chaudhary, Harshita Thakur, Khushi Jain et al.,2025-09-25 The Constitution in Practice Rights and Duties covers Articles 1 51A of the Indian Constitution through student contributed chapters It simplifies complex provisions to make learning easier offering clear and practical insights into the nation's fundamental rights and duties The Press Council Nand Kishore Tripathi,1986 Summary Study of the working of the Press Council of India includes verdicts acts regulations etc The Press in India Krishna Singh Padhy,Rabindra Natha Sahu,1997 The Present Work Has Made An Attempt To Discuss The Origin And Growth Of The Indian Press Its Role And Responsibility As A Communicator Its Freedom And Measures Adopted By The Authorities Executive Legislature Judiciary To Suppress It The Importance Of The Press Council In Ensuring Press Freedom Is Also Highlighted Journal of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies ,1990 The Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 - An Analysis Dr. E. Ajitha,2025-05-16 The demographic trends of the Indian population have necessitated concerted action by the legislature and the executive on the policy front to be prepared as a nation to manage the consequences of a growing aged population The situation of increasing aged population is increasingly a grave concern to the administration as lifestyle and family dynamics change Till a couple of decades back the joint family system was a safety net that provided security and care to the elderly But in recent decades with the breakdown of the joint family system the elderly are left without support Therefore the responsibility of the state towards the elderly population is heightened To address this concern of ensuring the physical psychological and medical needs of senior citizens the first elder law of India The Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act 2007 was enacted The objective of the Act is to ensure the maintenance and welfare needs of the senior citizens and parents are provided for by the family This book analyses the Act in totality and also throws light on the international initiatives which facilitated the national policy in this regard It also looks at the personal laws with regard to maintenance and welfare of parents and senior citizens The lacuna in the Act are also highlighted The Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Amendment Bill 2019 was introduced in the parliament in 2019 but it is still pending The Bill attempts to address some of the issues in the Act of 2007 The Bill expands the concept of children to include stepchildren adoptive children children in law and legal guardians of minor children According to the Act of 2007 children may be ordered by Maintenance Tribunals to pay their parents a maximum of Rs 10 000 in maintenance each month This upper limit on the maintenance cost is eliminated by the Bill The Act allows older persons to challenge the Maintenance Tribunal s rulings The Bill permits family members and children to appeal Tribunal rulings as well According to the Bill the Tribunal may issue a warrant to collect the unpaid sum if the children or family members disregard maintenance orders If the fine is not paid there is the potential for a one month jail sentence or until the money is paid The Bill outlines regulations for both private senior care facilities and organizations that offer in home care services The ceiling on maintenance fee is eliminated under the Bill When determining the amount of maintenance the Tribunals must take into account i the parent s or senior citizen s level of living and income and ii the children s For abandonment of senior citizen or parent the punishment is enhanced Punishable with imprisonment between three and six months or a fine of up to Rs 10 000 or both Even as the amendment Bill is yet to come into force the tribunals and courts have been trying cases pertaining to the Act of 2007 albeit without much clarity in certain sections Section 16 is one such section where different high courts have taken different views Whereas the Bombay High Court following the Paramjit Saroya case AIR 2014 PUNJAB AND HARYANA 121 has allowed appeal by children permissible under section 16 in Ridhi and Another v Prathiba and Others 2024 SCC Online Bombay 1690 recently the Division Bench Karnataka High Court in K Lokesh v The Bangalore District Maintenance M Tamil Selvan and Another v District Collector and others 2024 SCC Online Mad 7377 But in Urmila Dixit v Sunil Sharan Dixit Civil Appeal No 10927 of 2024 the Supreme Court reversed its order in Sudesh Chikara s case and has held that tribunals are empowered to not only render the transfer deed void but also to order the possession back to the parents even if the stipulation under Section 23 is not fulfilled in order to reinstate the rights of the parents and senior citizens The Court further stated that the Act is a beneficial legislation meant to lend a helping hand to elders who are left alone due to withering of joint family system and that its provisions should be interpreted liberally and not in the strict sense to protect their rights The Supreme court has in the case of Dr Ashwani Kumar versus Union of India and Others PIL No 193 2016 2019 2 SCC 636 pointing at the poor implementation of the Elder Act emphasized the importance of execution of the Act effectively in order to guarantee that older citizens statutory and fundamental rights such as the right to shelter healthcare and dignity are fulfilled The Supreme Court underlined the necessity of ongoing and recurring oversight to guarantee the successful execution of the Elder Act 2007 and support the advancement of senior persons well being Therefore it is imperative that the amendment Bill that has been pending for years is updated to meet the evolving social dynamics and enacted to ensure objective of the elder care law is attained in letter and spirit Journal of the Indian Law Institute ,1994 The Politics of Rights Andrea Cornwall,Maxine Molyneux,2013-09-13 Since the late 1990s development institutions have increasingly used the language of rights in their policy and practice This special issue on feminist perspectives on politics of rights explores the strategies tensions and challenges associated with rights work in a variety of settings Articles on the Middle East Africa Latin America East and South Asia explore the dilemmas that arise for feminist praxis in these diverse locations and address the question of what rights can contribute to struggles for gender justice Exploring the intersection of formal rights whether international human rights conventions constitutional rights or national legislation with the everyday realities of women in settings characterized by entrenched gender inequalities and poverty plural legal systems and cultural norms that can constitute formidable obstacles to realizing rights The contributors suggest that these sites of struggle can create new possibilities and meanings and a politics of rights animated by demands for social and gender justice Studies in Human Rights ,2000 Compilation of articles published in various journals with reference to India The Public is Watching Lawrence Liang,Mayur Suresh,Namita Avriti Malhotra,2007 Indian Book Industry ,1989 Freedom of Press Sita Bhatia,1997 The Indian Journal of Legal Studies ,1991 Freedom Under Assault Chitra Kanungo,2001 With reference to freedom of the press in India Essays on Press Freedom V.
