Is It Time to Abandon Darwin? Michael Barber, 2014-07-24 The road to acceptance for the theory of Darwin's Evolution has been a rocky one But today it is under attack more than ever before These attacks are no longer just from the religious arena they are coming from the scientific community and from highly respected individuals This work postulates a new scientific theory Dynamic Evolution

the ideas of which are demonstrated to be superior to the precepts of Darwin's theories. This is not a religious or philosophical approach. You will find within these pages a sound scientifically based theory that will have no less an effect than to put the final nail in the coffin of Darwinian Evolution. This book offers a comprehensive challenge to the Darwinian premise that the diversity of life is explained solely by the natural selection and survival of the fittest. It will become apparent from a complete study of this work that the principles of Darwinian Evolution fall under the shadow of the complete picture provided by Dynamic Evolution.

Is It Time to Abandon the Trinity? Michael Barber, 2014-07-18 Joan Bocher was burned to death in England in 1550 AD. Her crime, The Encyclopaedia Britannica 1964 says, She was condemned for open blasphemy in denying the Trinity, the one offence which all the church had regarded as unforgivable ever since the struggle with Arianism. On October 27th 1553 Michael Servetus, a medical practitioner, was burned at the stake at Geneva, Switzerland, for denying the doctrine of the Trinity. In 1693 a pamphlet attacking the Trinity was burned by order of the House of Lords, and the following year its printer and author were prosecuted. The finest scholarship on biblical manuscripts and on Hebrew and Greek language syntax and word morphology is introduced and quoted throughout this work, demonstrating effectively that the linguistic and contextual considerations for each passage of scripture are in agreement in their refutation of the Trinitarian view.
